This summer, these Badgers (Nicole, Jeremy and Hans) come out to the Center every Tuesday afternoon to help the Farley Center Farm and work in the Natural Path Sanctuary. They are hard working students and much appreciated! Learn more about our UW Badger Volunteers

Farley Center Volunteer Spotlight Congratulations to Pat Slogoski

The Farley Center thanks Volunteer Pat Slogoski for helping us distribute flyers for our upcoming events. She helps us get the word out about what is happening at the Farley Center! Learn how you can volunteer at the Farley Center.

Pat has two pet alpacas, Sabrina and her son Ziggy.

2019 Farley Center Beekeepers

The twelve Farley Center Beekeepers meet every couple weeks with Head Beekeeper Patrick Norby and Beekeeper Matt Kersten. The bees got off to a rough start but now are thriving and they will have a very limited supply of honey to sell at the Food Fest. Come visit the Farley Center Beekeeper table where the Beekeepers will be available to answer your questions about bees and about how you can become a 2020 Farley Center Beekeeper! Farley Center is always looking for donations of used beekeeping equipment to support the program and the bees. Learn more about our Beekeeping program.

Join the NPS Shovel Brigade

We are looking for interested folks who would like to join the Natural Path Sanctuary Shovel Brigade. What is that? A group/individuals who would be willing to be on call to help dig graves. We are looking for strong people who can work outdoors in all kinds of weather.

Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to sign up, e-mail director@farleycenter.org.

New Farley Center staff Welcome to AJ

AJ started working part-time this June helping Director Shedd Farley with some of the outdoor work that needs to be done around the Farley Center. AJ was one of the Spartan Youth Service Volunteers from James Madison Memorial High School who came out on a regular basis last year. He will work at the Center until school starts in the fall.

This is the 4th year that area artists are rising to the challenge to create installations in the woods using only materials that can safely decompose back into the land in the Natural Path Sanctuary on the Farley Center land. Learn more about EARTH DANCE.

On public view: Aug. 31-Nov. 2, 2019 | Artists' Reception Sep. 14, 1-3pm

We join The Nelson Institute in celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Earth Day. We also thank Dane Arts for supporting Earth Dance and our media sponsor, WORT.

THANK YOU Rachel Potter

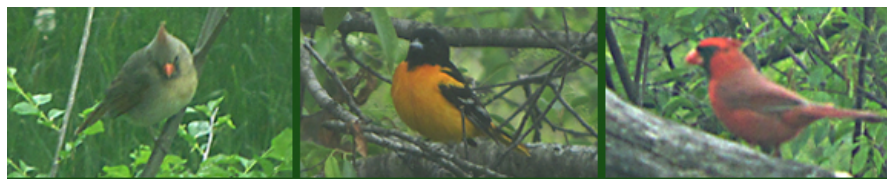

The Farley Center Board and Staff sends out a heartfelt THANK YOU to Rachel Potter. Rachel has served as a Farley Center Board Member since October 2013. She was a board member that Gene Farley personally recruited.

We sincerely appreciate Rachel's dedication, hard work, knowledge and skills that she has contributed to the Farley Center over the years. Learn more about our Board of Directors.

Your Partnership is Key to Meeting our Mission of Peace, Justice and Sustainability.

The Farley Center is funded in part through the generosity of donations from those who share our vision and also through Natural Path Sanctuary green burial sales. We invite your support of and participation in the Farley Center. Learn more about the Farley Center.

I'm so happy to see that my final resting place will be filled with beautiful birds!
