We Couldn't Do It Without Volunteers

The Farley Center 2022 Volunteer Spotlight

focuses on Barry Kita. He has worked hard on expanding the garden near the house. Barry works at Exact Sciences and uses their volunteer-time-off benefit to volunteer at the Farley Center. We appreciate all the volunteers working in so many different capacities at the Center.

The Quail Have Arrived!

We are so excited! We ordered Bobwhite Quail back in November 2021 and they finally arrived Sunday, July 9th! Director Shedd Farley along with NPS Sr. Assistant Kalev Kristjuhan and Assistant Dustin Duve worked hard to prepare the quail hutch to make the Farley Center a home for our Bobwhite Quails! We hope to help revitalize the quail population in Wisconsin.

Brave Crossing Book Discussion With Maria Alvarez Stroud

Several gathered to hear author Maria Alvarez Stroud talk about her father's journey from the Philippines in the late 1800s to make a new life here in Wisconsin. It was an interesting discussion on immigration, race and finding one's roots in their family story.
