

Farley Center for Peace, Justice and Sustainability Beekeeping Program 2024

Participants receive one season of beekeeping experience & guidance

- Use of equipment and protective clothing Hive location at the Farley Center 1 package of bees + queen
- Equal share of all program honey
- Access to check your hive outside of scheduled times
- Meet every two weeks or as the bees dictate or other needs arise
- Program runs approximately April through August

Cost to Participate

- $500 payable to the Farley Center ($600 for 2 people to share 1 hive)
- Promote Farley Center events to your friends

Requirements

- Participants in the program consent to their name & photos being published in Farley Center media
- Program scheduling and communication is facilitated by a Facebook page, a facebook account is required for communication
- Availability on weekend meeting to install bees, regular meetings on Tuesday evenings
- Under 18 year old participants – please include age on application

Contacts

Patrick Norby Farley Center Beekeeper beekeepers@farleycenter.org 608 628 7148	Caroline Tu Farley Program Director programs@farleycenter.org	Shedd Farley Farley Center Director director@farleycenter.org	Farley Center 2299 Spring Rose Rd Verona, WI 53593 608 845 8724
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------

Farley Center for Peace, Justice and Sustainability Beekeeper Incubator Program Application

Name _____ Address _____

Phone _____

Glove Size _____ Jacket Size _____

Email _____

Name as you would want it printed on a certificate of completion (Print Clearly)

What are your goals for the beekeeping season?

Please complete and send to Patrick Norby
8566 Davis St
Verona, WI 53593

Accepted Applicants will receive an invoice from the Farley Center
DO NOT INCLUDE PAYMENT WITH APPLICATION